HISTORICAL NOTES

The SAN GIORGIO Medical Analysis Laboratory has been active in the field of chemical-clinical and microbiological analyses since 1974.

In 1998, following the change of management, the Organization was totally renewed in infrastructure, analytical instrumentation and personnel.

In 2001 the Authority developed its operational capabilities by merging at corporate level, incorporating the Medical Analysis Laboratory of Sannazzaro de' Burgondi and keeping the original laboratory on site.

With a view to strengthening its presence in the area and providing better services to users, in 2004 the Company also acquired the COS Analysis Laboratory, one of the "historic" private laboratories in Pavia, and transferred the city headquarters of the analysis laboratory there.

In 2010 the unification of the two analysis laboratories at the headquarters in San Genesio ed Uniti took place. In 2014 the company acquired the business branch of the Accursio Clinical Chemical Analysis Laboratory in Milan, transforming the original laboratory into a new sampling point. In order to implement the offer of health services provided and to improve the current level of accessibility to laboratory services, thus integrating the existing diagnostic network in the Lodi and Pavia areas, in 2016 two new external sampling points were created in the Municipalities of Sant'Angelo Lodigiano and Vigevano and in 2025 an additional external sampling point was opened in Lodi.

Currently, the SMeL structure is divided into a main Operating Unit to which an adjacent sampling center and seven external sampling points belong.

MISSION

The SAN GIORGIO Medical Analysis Laboratory is committed to providing a laboratory medicine service of the best possible quality level able to fully satisfy the explicit and implicit needs of the Customer.

OBJECTIVES FOR IMPROVEMENT

The SAN GIORGIO Medical Analysis Laboratory intends to guarantee and improve the quality of the services offered through:

- the continuous updating of its technological and professional know-how
- the extensive use of information technology (ICT)
- the adoption of analytical processes that provide precise and reliable results and that reduce the availability time of reports
- the use of technologies that safeguard the health of operators and the environment
- participation in intralaboratory (CQI) and interlaboratory (EQA) quality control programs
- the consolidation of the Company Quality Management System according to the UNI EN ISO 9001 standard and the updating of the related certification
- the promotion and development of continuous improvement projects.
